

JOB POSTING

Date: June 25, 2021

Competition: 21-37

Sessional Instructor – Fire & Safety Division- Fire Fighter Programs

We invite applications for the position of Sessional Instructor – Fire & Safety Division- Fire Fighter Programs. This is position is on an ‘as and when needed’ basis (based on course offerings), reporting to the Program Director, Fire & Safety Division. This position is based at our Maple Ridge, BC campus.

Justice Institute of British Columbia:

Justice Institute of British Columbia (JIBC) is Canada’s leading public safety educator with a mission to develop dynamic justice and public safety professionals through its exceptional applied education, training and research. JIBC offers internationally recognized education that leads to certificates, diplomas, bachelor’s degrees and graduate certificates; exceptional continuing education for work and career-related learning and development; and customized contract training to government agencies and private organizations worldwide. Each year, over 36,000 students study at one of JIBC’s six campuses in B.C., through online education, and at locations in more than 150 BC communities, as well as sites across Canada and around the world. Our education contributes to safer communities and a more just society by providing professionals with the knowledge, skills and abilities to excel at every stage of their careers and make a difference every day.

Summary:

The Fire & Safety Division (FSD) delivers superior public safety training using experienced and subject matter expert industry specialists, fire fighters/officers who instruct and evaluate in a variety of firefighting programs. Our instructors facilitate course delivery to the public, industry as well as to volunteer, composite, and career fire departments.

FSD requires additional subject matter expert industry specialists, fire fighters/officers, from the Lower Mainland to instruct at the Maple Ridge Campus (MRC), who are able to work as sessional instructors in a number of firefighting programs. The successful candidates will reflect the diversity of the fire service.

All successful candidates must reside in the Lower Mainland to be able to work at the MRC as well as be available and accept up to four instructor assignments per month.

Sessional instructors are required in the following program areas:

- Industrial Firefighting (NFPA-1081)
- Live Fire I & II (NFPA-1001, and complying with 1403)
- Marine Firefighting (Transport Canada)
- Hazardous Materials (NFPA 1072)
- Technical Rescue (NFPA 1006)
- Emergency Vehicle Operations (NFPA 1002)
- Firefighter Technology Certificate (FFTC) (NFPA 1001)

Required Qualifications:

Candidates applying for these positions will have an established reputation and proven record in the emergency service industry, including the skills and abilities necessary to instruct the curriculum. Candidates are required to have recognized training and educational credentials equivalent to one level above the content area. A suitable combination of education and experience may be considered. Candidates must also meet the following requirements:

- NFPA 1001 Firefighter Level II- JIBC certified (or an equivalent combination of training and experience);
- NFPA 1021 Fire Officer I – JIBC certified (or an equivalent combination of training and experience);
- Fire Service Instructor level II (or an equivalent combination of training and experience);
- Completion of the JIBC Evaluator Course (FIRE 1052);
- Minimum of 3-5 years of teaching experience, preferably with supervisory experience;
- Flexible availability and willingness to travel throughout the province;
- Provincial Instructor Diploma or professional development program would be an asset.

Please visit our website at <https://www.jibc.ca/about-us/working-jibc> for a more detailed job posting.

Posting Date: June 25, 2021

Closing Date: July 09, 2021

Start Date: To be determined with successful candidates

Please submit a resume, covering letter, a complete academic CV and three references, quoting Competition #21-37 via email to: Human Resources at hr@jibc.ca

For more information about this position, please contact:

Dave Wallack, Program Director, Fire & Safety Division at dwallack@jibc.ca.

Justice Institute of British Columbia is an equal opportunity employer and is interested in broadening the diversity of its staff. We encourage applications from visible minorities, Indigenous peoples and persons with disabilities.

